HUNTING WIPES

FOR BODY AND GEAR

Opportunities in hunting do not come along as often as we hope. In order to maximize your chance for success and get as close to your target as possible, it is essential to control your scent. Team REALTREE® Hunting Wipes combine the effectiveness of odor neutralization and odor counteraction at the molecular level. The dual technologies polarize malodor molecules, and render the malodor signal as unrecognizable to the brain, while the second ingredient masks human scent. These technologies create optimum control of human odor, insuring the best possible chance for a successful hunt.

For use on body and gear, soft and durable Team REALTREE Hunting Wipes are available in long-lasting Pine, Cedar and Earth scents, and Odor Control formula. The compact canister conveniently stores in your hunting pack or vehicle.
